

WELCOME TO OUR

Weekly Newsletter

we're so glad you're here!

WELCOME BACK TO A WEEK OF BOOKISH DISCOVERIES!

New Releases

Penguin Random House

- When the Cranes Fly South by Lisa Ridzen – a story of an elderly man's attempts to mend his relationship with his son.
- I Love my Cat with The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle – this story celebrates the cherished pets and show the cat lovers in your life how much you care!

Simon & Schuster

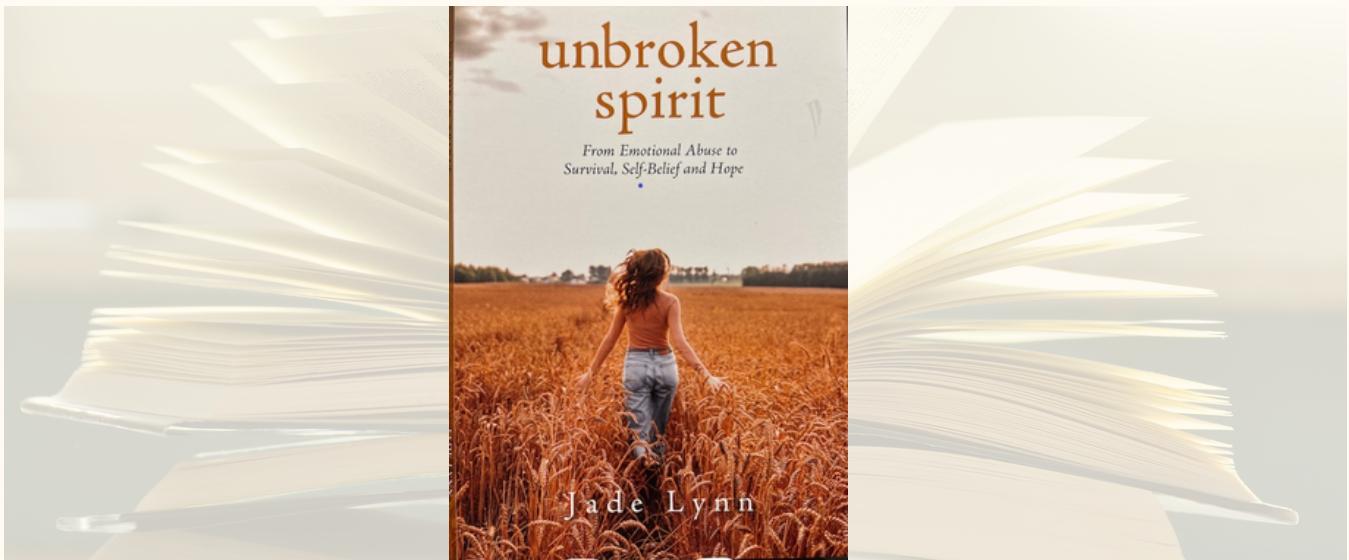

- The Woman in Suite 11 by Ruth Ware – this is a follow up novel to The Woman in Cabin 10.
- The White Crow by Michael Robotham – Philomena McCarthy has defied the odds and becomes a young officer with the Metropolitan Police. On patrol she finds a barefoot child covered in blood...

Top eBook Pick

OPRAH'S BOOK CLUB

Gilead by Marilynne Robinson – winner of the Pulitzer Prize this story is a hymn of praise and lamentation from a 1950's preacher man. A testament to the sacred bonds between fathers and sons.

Our Latest Client Project

WE ABSOLUTELY LOVED WORKING WITH THIS CLIENT!

In her debut novel, Jade recounts her harrowing journey from the depths of emotional abuse to the discovery of her inner strength and unyielding hope. She told her story with raw vulnerability and courage.

Coming Up

X2 NEW BOOK REVIEWS

We have been working hard or should I say reading lots. Two great reviews of memoirs coming soon.

DETAILS COMING SOON

Free Resource

WHAT IS ONE THING YOU ARE ALWAYS LOOKING FOR?

We are working hard on some free resources. Is there something you are always scrambling for?

COULD BE AN INSTANT DOWNLOAD